For the Baptism Service

- You will be asked to share your testimony publicly. Your New Believer's Class Leader will walk you through the process of preparing your testimony.
- The baptism service will take place in a baptismal font (pool) located at the front of the church.
- You should dress in garments that will not become translucent when wet.
- Bring towels and extra clothing to change after the baptism service
- You can invite as many friends and family members to share in the special moment with you
